NEW YORK, JULY 26, 2020 - The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS) announced this evening the winners of the 47th ANNUAL DAYTIME EMMY® AWARDS - Children's, Lifestyle & Animation Ceremony, live-streamed on our dedicated platform powered by Vimeo. The ceremony was hosted by the Emmy® Award-winning Loni Love, one of the Daytime stars of the Emmy® Award-winning show, "The Real."

"Tonight, we continue to honor the best of Daytime television by presenting our feature awards virtually in leading categories with recipients and other special guests appearing from home in light of the COVID-19 pandemic," said Adam Sharp, President & CEO NATAS.

All programming is viewable on the web at watch.theemmys.tv.

In addition to Loni Love, additional presenters that appeared included, Izabella Alvarez (Nickelodeon's "The Loud House" and "The Casagrandes"), Tabitha Brown (Actress and Vegan Foodie), Josh Dela Cruz (Nickelodeon's "Blue's Clues & You!"), Quintessa Swindell (Netflix's "Trinkets") and Andrew Zimmern ("The Zimmern List").

The Daytime Emmy® Awards have recognized outstanding achievement in daytime television programming since 1974. The awards are presented to individuals and programs broadcast between 2:00 AM and 6:00 PM, as well as certain categories of digital and syndicated programming of similar content. This year's awards honor content from more than 2,700 submissions that originally premiered in calendar-year 2019, judged by a pool of 1,000 peer professionals from across the television industry.
