

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, May 22, 2016 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. A massive space-shuttle fuel tank squeezed through the streets of Los Angeles and loomed over vehicles on a busy freeway Saturday to join the retired orbiter Endeavour. Where will they be on display? (Main)
2. In an eerie coincidence, the EgyptAir jetliner that plunged into the Mediterranean on Thursday was once the target of political vandals who wrote what message in Arabic on its underside? (Main)
3. A powerful array of the Republican Party's largest financial backers remains resistant to which candidate? This is forming a wall of opposition that could make it exceedingly difficult for him to meet his goal of raising $1 billion before the November election. (Main)
4. As Sanders makes a tough final play to wrest the nomination from Clinton, his campaign is experiencing what? How much money did his campaign have at the beginning of May? (Main)
5. Devil-proof barriers, flashing roadside alarms and infrared cameras are protecting the Tasmanian devils from their two greatest threats. What are they? (Main)
6. The battle over the fortune of ailing media mogul Sumner Redstone has taken another turn. Lawyers for Redstone are seeking to remove two members of the board of the trust that will eventually control Redstone's $40 billion media empire, which includes what two main TV stations? (Main)
7. This year's "one-night count" in King County found how many people sleeping outside, a 44 percent increase in two years? (NW Sunday)
8. Synthes and Norian, along with four top executives, were indicted in 2009 on charges of conducting unauthorized clinical trials despite warnings that the bone cement caused what? (NW Sunday)
9. Despite the fog, the rain and an undefeated Kentucky Derby winner to contend with, Hall of Fame jockey Kent Desormeaux knew the best route to the Preakness winner's circle with Exaggerator. What was the jockey's secret to win? (Sports)
10. "After what I went through last year, thank God I'm healthy. I'm able to use my body and move left and right, back and forth. That's everything." Who said this quote? (Sports)

Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition of the newspaper please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2016 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, May 22, 2016

1. The California Science Center (Main, A3)
2. "We will bring this plane down." (Main, A4)
3. Donald Trump (Main, A8)
4. A critical cash shortage; It had less than $6 million at the start of May (Main, A10)
5. Cancer and cars (Main, A11)
6. CBS and Viacom (Main, A13)
7. 4,505 people (NW Sunday, B1)
8. Deadly blood clots (NW Sunday, B1)
9. Stay inside and wait. (Sports, C5)
10. Robinson Cano (sports, C6)